

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY
LOUISVILLE METRO BOARD OF HEALTH

GREG FISCHER
MAYOR

WILLIAM M. ALTMAN, JD, MA
BOARD CHAIRMAN

January 3, 2011

Dear Food Service Managers:

The Louisville Metro Board of Health has increased the fees associated with its Food Service Managers Course. Originally introduced in 1989, this training course provides food service personnel with basic knowledge of food borne illnesses, food inspection code violations and the latest recommendations and guidelines for safe food handling.

Every establishment providing food service to the community must have a certified Food Service Manager on duty during all hours of operation. Due to increased costs associated with providing this important aspect of food safety, it is necessary that the fee for attendance be raised to $35.00 per person. The cost for retests will now be $15.00 per person. All fee increases will be effective on February 1, 2011.

If you have any questions, please contact the Division of Environmental Health and Protection at 574-6650. Your cooperation and understanding is appreciated.

Sincerely,

William Altman, JD
Chairman, Board of Health
